Q & A

Created: 6/8/2026

Revised: 7/3/2026

197) Racist? Jane Lead has been accused of racism by Christian Researchers. Where did they get such an idea?

Attempts by researchers to link Jane Lead with British Israelism and Christian Identity have contributed to this false accusation of racism—which has no historical basis. Both movements began long after her death. Nor are any such aberrant and abhorrent teachings found in her writings.

British Israelism (also called Anglo-Israelism) posits that the Anglo-Saxon people of Europe and Great Britain are the direct descendants of the 10 Lost Tribes of Israel;¹ and that the British monarch presently sits on the Throne of David. However Jane believed that the Jews would return to the Land of Israel and ultimately acknowledge Jesus as their Messiah. Therefore she was a Christian Zionist—not a political Zionist—a Biblical Zionist.

Christian Identity is an extremely racial and radical byproduct of British Israelism; and can be simply described as white supremacy. Those that adhere to this ideology believe they are the true descendants of God's chosen people the Jews, and that the true Jews are impostors. They also believe in a racial hierarchy (Aryanism), with the white race as superior to all other races of color. (See also Q&A Jun. 2024 #15, Q&A Nov. 2024 #46, and Q&A Dec. 2024 #52.)

198) Tongues. What was Jane's understanding of Pentecostalism's speaking in tongues? And did she ever write about the Tongues of Angels? Is it the same as speaking in tongues?

Jane acknowledged tongues as a true and phenomenal event experienced on the Day of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit was given to the Upper Room-waiters.² Since that time many holy and seeking believers have also entered into this Promise of Christ's Resurrected-Spirit indwelling them in a true and tangible way.³ But she never associated speaking in tongues as evidence of the Holy Spirit-Baptism. Jane lived 200 years before modern Pentecostalism introduced it into the church as an incoherent language. That's not to say she would have approved; and she certainly didn't teach it.

She speaks of God's Divine Mysteries as written in the "high tongue and seraphic Canaan language," and the "high tongue of the learned, which only speaks from Wisdom's Breath."⁴ This One Pure Language⁵ is taught to Spiritual Christians, and cannot be understood without the indwelling Birth of the Life of Christ-Resurrected in the soul;⁶ making it incomprehensible to doubters, skeptics and mockers of the deep things of God, who yet walk according to the natural man.⁷

She also writes of the Tongues of Angels—as does the Apostle Paul.⁸ But this language and speech is not generated from the mind or lips of man; but is only experienced when deep in the Spirit:

... this was the Magia-School; where all of Mortal Language was to be excluded. For all was understood by the operation of the Magia: here was no Speech, but all Power acted. (3F 19:22)

As this communication is God initiated, it is not intended for public use or meetings, and therefore cannot be repeated or falsified.

199) England. Any truth to what Christian Researchers and Discernment Ministers report: that Jane proudly viewed her country England as the superior head and leader of the New Gospel that she preached?

England had the great privilege of being the first nation to receive and to declare the new message of the Kingdom as revealed to Jane Lead; and the first opportunity to enter into its inward benefits.

O England, England, understand the day of your visitation, for this is the acceptable year, in which there is a Mighty Star that in your Bethlehem-City is born, that calls the Ransomed Ones from all nations, languages, and tribes, to come to the brightness of its rising. (TR 65a)

This alarm I was first to sound to my native country. (TR 65b)

However Jane also cautioned her country that if they should ignore or discount this invitation through carelessness or unbelief, the message would be given to other nations more worthy:

You are therefore warned, O English inhabitants, that you do not miss this your day, and suffer other nations more watchful and obedient to this call, to take the birth-right from you, and supplant you off of your crown. (TR 65)

*Take care, O England, lest this Star from you glides away. Let not the clouds of ignorant suspicion or demurring jealousy, concerning the true Heir of the New Jerusalem Mother, who is now to enter upon this Reign, and to rule with the Scepter of Faith, hinder you from discerning that the glass is now turned up; that its half-hour is running, that the third watch is set, and that the golden cock is thereupon clapping his wings, and crowing the third and last time. (TR 65)*

Yet in spite of the warnings, England indeed rejected Jane's message, and lost their privilege and standing much in the same way that Israel lost the privilege of spreading the Gospel. And as the Gospel of Salvation is now preached by other nations throughout the world, so this Gospel of the Kingdom of God's LOVE is now preached by other nations—just as Jane had warned. Today this Love-Gospel is embraced by Holy Seekers in America, Australia, Bulgaria, Cameroon, Canada, China, England, France, Nigeria, New Zealand, Norway, South Africa, Swaziland, and many more countries whose eyes are open to see the first glimmers of a New Dispensation on the horizon. This call for the gathering of the Bride has neither died nor diminished. For the Trumpet-Message will grow louder with each passing day,⁹ and shall never cease to sound¹⁰—until the number is filled up,¹¹ when the last holy soul enters the Ark, and the Lord shuts the door.¹²

Some may ask Why England? Then we should also ask Why Israel? Both England and Israel were chosen through no merit of their own.¹³ God's Great Redemption must succeed; and He requires people and nations and tongues to accomplish His Plan. The Earthly Kingdom began with Israel. The Kingdom of God's LOVE on Earth began with England. Therefore both Israel and England are called "Firstborn" nations; and England is the Firstborn of the Gentiles:

Therefore hear O English nation, who have been as the First Born in this Gospel Kingdom, and have been visited with the beams of a Glorious Light, from the Sun of Righteousness, who has scattered His precious Live Coals, as Burning Lamps to go forth in the midst of you, to sow the pure Light of Life: Which is as the first appearance of the morning-break for that Blessed Day, of a stronger and increasing Light to ensue hereupon. (4F Preface)¹⁴

But Jane's country rejected their Spiritual Messiah just as Israel rejected their Physical Messiah. And England fiercely persecuted its messengers just as the Jews persecuted the early Church. Israel's Gospel offered the forgiveness of sin, salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ, and a future Earthly Kingdom. England's message was a universal offer of God's LOVE, a total and full (complete) redemption through Christ Jesus, and a Heavenly Kingdom on Earth. And although both Gospel's were initially rejected, yet they both remain—and will never cease to be preached—until the time of the restitution of all things, when everything will be restored in the Great Redemption-Plan of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord's earthly ministry was but one part of that Plan. The Jews sought an outward Savior, not realizing that something more was needed—rather Someone—who would deal with their sinful nature, and ultimately destroy sin in their flesh.¹⁵ This is true Redemption and Restoration!¹⁶ Christians today make the same mistake. They believe they have escaped the “wrath to come,” yet they continue to suffer the wrathful and hellish nature that is imbedded in their own souls. They do not see—or else they refuse to believe—that Jesus came to save them from that as well—in this life!¹⁷

The Fall in the Garden has affected every man, woman, and child—not to mention the whole inward and outward Earth, the seas and everything in the seas. The skies and even the air we breathe are all tainted by that “one sin” in Eden. But immediately after the transgression—nay even before it happened—God set in motion His Great Plan for the recovery of the lost couple and all their progeny.

O London, there is hidden in you those who have a true and right mission from the Munition Rock, to give out the waters of the Spirit plenteously. For a cry is gone forth, for persons to be prepared and sanctified by this Water of Life, that so they may receive of the Holy Ghost, and be witnesses of His power. (EW 1:23a)

Hear and listen in the Spirit: O listen, and you will hear the Seventh Trumpet sound, from the Seven Spirits that are before the Throne that tell you: that the mystery of time is now finishing; and that the Everlasting Gospel of the Love is opening; and that the heavens are ready to roll down, to open their glory upon the earth, that its inhabitants may no longer lie buried in the dark shade of an earthly life. (EW 1:23b)

England's “visitation” happened over 300 years ago. Jane reminded them of the tremendous gift and responsibility entrusted to them. But just as the Jews of old rejected the message of their Earthly Messiah—and even to this day continue to refuse to be saved by Christ—England has overall rejected the message of their Spiritual Messiah, and refuse to be transformed by Christ.

The accusation that Jane Lead proudly considered her country as the superior leader and head of this Gospel is factually invalid. Such baseless statements will only provoke arguments of prejudice, pride, and jealousy—which will not succeed when considering the meekness and humility of a woman who warned against taking up a banner of pride—as not only uncomely for a Holy Seeker—but detrimental toward attaining the First Resurrection-Crown. Pride is the greatest of all sins.¹⁸ Therefore she was not “prideful” that England was chosen, but instead trembled that they might lose their standing in the Kingdom to come.

Salvation is a free gift.¹⁹ But a position in the Kingdom must be earned.²⁰ Those who think that Jesus will set up His Kingdom in an instant when He appears will have to examine all the Scriptures to see if there has ever been such a precedent. There is always great preparation beforehand:

- ♦ The Children of Israel trained for 400 years in Egypt; then another 40 years in the Wilderness.
- ♦ Moses trained for 40 years in great privilege; then another 40 in the desert of depravation.
- ♦ Jesus trained for 30 years in man's flesh; then another 40 days in the Wilderness.
- ♦ The Firstborn of the Kingdom have been in training for over 300 years!²¹

Will the Everlasting Gospel of God's LOVE ever return to England? Yes, in the same way that the Gospel of Salvation will one day return to Israel. In the meantime the Lord commands Holy Seekers in every nation to keep to their watch. Jesus predicted that many CHRISTIANS will turn away from the message of a New Dispensation and a New Thing that the Lord is even now ushering into the hearts of those Wise Virgins who have set their eyes on the First-Resurrection-Crown.²²

200) Devil Reborn? I understand that Jane Lead taught that the Devil would be “reborn.” Can you explain?

Words matter. So when examining her teachings, we must carefully consider her precise statements and the terminology she used.

Jane never states that the Devil will be “reborn.” The Devil (Satan) is an Angel, and as such he is a created being.²³ Therefore he cannot be reborn because he was never born in the first place. She uses the words “rebirth” and “born again,” but only as they apply to the Indwelling Christ as a birth within the soul of man.²⁴

The “restoration” of Lucifer and the Apostatized Angels is covered more specifically Jane’s Everlasting Gospel, especially Part 3, where she states that they will eventually be recovered (restored) through the unfathomable extent of God’s Love, by and through the Lord Jesus Christ.

201) Restorationist: Researchers and scholars say that Jane Lead was a restorationist. Is that the same as the restorationism of the New Apostolic Reformation?

No. Jane Lead's restorationism is not the same as the NAR, the Latter Rain, or even the restorationism of England’s Early Modern Era. They all involve an ecclesiastical and political reformation that includes both Church and State, with changes that are implemented through human agency. England’s ecclesiastical goal was to purge out all influences of Roman Catholicism, and to return the Church to its infant state of purity. Latter Rain sought to restore the Church through the 5-Fold Ministry, particularly “apostles” and “prophets,” and later through their doctrine of superhuman Manifest Sons of God. The New Apostolic Reformation is simply Latter Rain 2.0, albeit a much more aggressive version, yet with the same goals: to advance the Kingdom of God through the “restored office” of apostles and prophets; to bring both the Church and the world under their authority, through which they will reform the world and restore man’s dominion over all the Earth.²⁵

In stark contrast the only restoration Mrs. Lead taught and advocated was God’s Great Plan of Redemption—through which mankind, the world, and even the underworld will be restored to their pre-fallen condition. She taught this can only be accomplished through the Atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ. In Living Funeral Testimony she succinctly explains what she means by “restoration:”

All that has been impaired, desolated, and made miserable by transgression, shall to the greatest amazement (as the renewed wonder-work of the Creator) be repaired and redeemed; God in Christ reconciling again to Himself all that had departed and fallen away from Him. (LF 44a)

In the following excerpt from The State of the Philadelphian Society, Francis Lee plainly explains the goals of the Philadelphian Society, and exactly what their reformation entailed, as he answers the question, Who are the Philadelphians?

They are a religious society for the reformation of manners, for the advancement of an heroic Christian piety, and universal peace and love towards all...They are not for turning the world upside down, as some have represented them: they are not enemies to the civil or ecclesiastical rights of any...and had rather choose to acquiesce under some burthensome impositions than to run the risk of disturbing the peace and rest of the public, either as to Church or State.

Thus it is clear that Jane’s restorationism had nothing to do with Church or government politics. The Philadelphians were a religious society—not a political organization. They had no ambitions toward disrupting society, or for turning the world upside down. Their goal was to promote Universal Peace—not to Christianize society.

202) Pre or Post Millennial? In Q&A Oct. 2025, #133 you state that Jane Lead was premillennial: that Jesus will return in His glorified person BEFORE the 1,000-year reign begins. But in Revelation of Revelations (RR 10:3) she states that He will have no need to return during the Millennium. So was she pre or post Millennium?

Researchers and students attempting to label Jane Lead as either pre or post millennial may end up confused—as I was for many years. A premillennialist my entire Christian life, it was difficult for me to reconcile Jane’s post-millennial views—until very recently. It became clear to me that it’s not a question of either/or: For she viewed the “Second Coming”²⁶ as a transitional event that has three distinct stages: (1) The Sealing of the 144,000 before the Millennium. (2) The 1,000-year reign itself. (3) The personal return of the Lord after the Millennium.²⁷ All three stages are included in The Day of the Lord. Therefore Jane Lead was BOTH pre-millennial and post-millennial.

The “Second” Coming of Christ ²⁸
Stage 1: 3rd Coming ²⁹ Sealing of the 144,000 Pre-Millennial	Stage 2 1,000-Year Reign	Stage 3: 4th Coming Return of the Glorified Lord Post-Millennial
Wars of David		Peace of Solomon
Christ returns secretly to His Saints ; changes them from mortal to immortal. ³⁰	Christ reigns WITH and THROUGH the 144,000 Firstborn Firstfruits of the First Resurrection. ³¹	Return of the Glorified Lord Jesus WITH His Saints at the end of the Millennium. ³²

The Sealing of the 144,000 (God’s Elect, the Firstborn, the Melchizedek Priesthood) is neither instantaneous nor simultaneous; but a gradual process, where souls are added one-by-one, as each soul assigned to this group breaks open seal-after-seal within—through which he/she will ultimately receive the seal of an immortal and immaculate body:

I am upon a New Election, to call such who are found in the crown number roll: now, one by one, till an increase may be of this Holy Priesthood to the 144,000... The Redemption of the Body is the visible Adoption, Recognition, and Sealing of the Sons and Daughters of God... But there will be given again [as in Adam’s time] the immaculate body to some [the 144,000] for a distinguishing and sealing mark, over which the destroying angels of judgement will have no power.³³

The completed and perfected Firstborn, as Christ reigning in His Saints, will appear BEFORE the Lord Jesus Christ returns to Earth physically.³⁴ The appearance of this Holy Priesthood is the pre-millennial return of Christ.³⁵ Then follows the 1,000-year Kingdoms of David and Solomon; administered by the Priesthood, as Christ reigning with and through His Saints.³⁶ After the 1,000 years, the Lord will return in His glorified humanity, and turn the world back into a Paradise.³⁷

At His first coming Jesus fulfilled over 300 prophecies;³⁸ but many more were left unfulfilled.³⁹ Therefore we know that He had to come twice—which was a stumbling block for the Jews. To this day they reject Jesus as their Messiah because He did not fulfill all prophecies, and restore the Kingdom to Israel.⁴⁰ Yet the Church makes the same mistake by lumping all prophecies of His return into a single event. They do not see that for His Second Coming He will also come twice: one pre-millennial, one post-millennial.

This subject will be further developed in Oct. 2025 Q&A #135: The Threefold Coming of Christ (in progress). In the meantime, I’ve corrected and clarified myself in #133 and in other places. See also:

To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: (1Co 12:9-10)

14 From the Preface of Fountain of Gardens, Vol. 4—which has not yet been revised to the Spirit's Day Version.

15 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. (Mat 19:27-28)

Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. (Php 3:13-14)

26 Note that the term “Second Coming” is not found in the Holy Scriptures.

27 The doctrine of the Rapture as presently taught by the Church: that all Christians will be instantly changed into immortal bodies, to meet the Lord in the air, and be carried into Heaven, there to remain for 7 years, was not a doctrine taught by Mrs. Lead.

28 This Chart will be developed more fully in an update to Q&A Oct. 2025: Jane Lead's Eschatology.

29 Jane explains the four comings of the Lord in Fountain of Gardens 3 (3F 3:15-21, January 18, 1678):

1. First Coming: As God manifested in flesh.
2. Second Coming: As the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost.
3. Third Coming: As a Thief in the Night for His Bridal Church.
4. Fourth Coming: Personally in His glorified humanity, to turn the world into a Paradise.
